Great advice for solving your problems at work!

But what about the problems with Lean management itself?

Lean's Biggest Problems

Leaders' Disinterest in Lean Management

Lack of Lean Transformations

Lean Professionals' Chronic Difficulties

Toxic Positivity

Gaslighting

Have you noticed how difficult it is for top promoters and influencers to publicly acknowledge these problems and their disinterest in solving these problems?

Clearly, there is a large gap between what they espouse and what they do.

Large “say-do” gap.

Not “walking the talk.”

Hypocrisy.

Why are these problems taboo?

And what are the responsibilities of top Lean promoters and influencers?

Why isn't the great advice given to Lean professionals used by Lean's top promoters and influencers to solve Lean's problems?
